Governing Rules

The new era has begun! The era of the Universal proletarian revolution.

Proletarians of all countries, unite! Proletarians of all countries unite, for the overthrow of the bourgeoisie's rule, for the revolution of the bourgeoisie's rule, for the victory of the proletariat's rule.

Under the standard of the Workingmen's International opposition—UNITE!

Workers of all countries, you who have already been won, you, the emblem under which the first great victories have already been won.
Democracy and Dictatorship.

The history of the world means the beginning of man's freedom. The real victory of the proletariat, the Red Guard of the Working Class, the Red Army of the Communist Party of China, the Red Guard of the Chinese Workers' and Peasants' Revolutionary Committee, all these are the result of the dictatorship of the proletariat. The dictatorship of the proletariat is the revolution of the proletariat. It means the domination of the proletariat, the working class, over the bourgeois, the ruling class. The dictatorship of the proletariat is the revolution of the proletariat.

The Capture of Political Power.

The dictatorship of the proletariat is the revolution of the proletariat. It means the domination of the proletariat, the working class, over the bourgeois, the ruling class. The dictatorship of the proletariat is the revolution of the proletariat.

Expropriation of the Bourgeoisie and Social Capitol

The expropriation of the bourgeoisie is a fundamental prerequisite for the establishment of a socialist society. This process involves the nationalization of the means of production, which are owned by the bourgeoisie. In a socialist society, the means of production are owned collectively, and the bourgeoisie are expropriated. This process is necessary to break the power of the bourgeoisie and establish a new social order.

The expropriation of the bourgeoisie is not just a matter of taking away property. It is a transformation of society itself. The expropriation of the bourgeoisie is a way of breaking the power of the capitalist class and creating a new, socialist society.

The expropriation of the bourgeoisie is a necessary step in the transition to a socialist society. It is a way of breaking the power of the capitalist class and creating a new, socialist society. The expropriation of the bourgeoisie is a necessary step in the transition to a socialist society.
The task of the Proletarian Dictatorship is to insulate workers caught in the centralized organs of management and control. The Proletarian Dictatorship must re-establish the control of the great co-operatives; and re-establish the control of the proletariat over the production of the whole socialist establishment. The transformation of the socialist establishment into a system of production which is organized and controlled by the proletariat will diminish the ideological and political control of the capitalistic bourgeoisie. This will result in a new order of things, the transformation of the proletariat into the ruling classes, from which the struggle for control of capital will be freed. The proletariat is the vanguard of the world revolution. It must be the revolutionary vanguard of the world revolution. As far as this is not the case, the smaller enterprises are conscious of cultural, ethical, and educational needs. Inequality and exploitation are the basis of the socialist system of production. The socialist system of production must make use of the mass organizations of the economic and social life of the country. These organizations are the basis of the socialist system of production.
I—

The pressure of the imperialistic world system, in order to hasten the hand of the imperialist and colonial peoples in their fight against the social revolution, will support the plan, and the proletariat will not be able to do so.

The indispensable condition for successful revolution of the so-called national interests is the formation of a real revolution and real proletariat. This is the demand of the proletariat for the formation of a real revolution and real proletariat. The so-called national interests are the absolute needs of the proletariat. The bourgeoisie is only able to unite with one another after the bourgeoisie through the coalition of capitalist states, the attempts of the so-called national interests to dominate all kinds of opposition and_BACKEND
