NOTES.

The third week of the campaign. October 29th, 1940.

The war is now the centre of our lives. The enemy is everywhere. We must prepare for a long struggle. We must be united and strong. We must be ready for anything. We must be brave and courageous.

To the people of this country.
