

MANIFESTATION IN PORTUGAL PROMOTED BY THE EXTREME RIGHT PARTY "NO MORE".

Saturday, June 27, 2020- Lisbon

In response to the countless anti-Racist demonstrations that we have seen around the world, triggered by the death of Geoge Floyd, who in the meantime have proclaimed other rights, as if these people did not know, such as against Police Abuse, Precariousness, Misery, Persecutions, Hunger, Refugees/Migrants, deep down all the injustices that are under the cloak of Capitalism, the NO MORE party (which is the most voted of the extreme right in Portugal, having elected a deputy of the system), decided to respond with its demonstration, saying it had about 1500 participants. I have no idea if the number launched is to be easily exceeded, given the support it gathers in coffee talks and then make it a great party.

This party is characterized by a high populism and shameless vote hunting gathering sympathies in the security forces, in people vulnerable to crime (but mainly to fear) and the good part of the middle class that wants to lead a quiet and peaceful life, like everyone else (but part of it, even if beside it someone is dying of hunger). Life imprisonment (any day death penalty), chemical castration for paedophiles, insults to those who enjoy the Social Integration Income, systematic attack on the situation of ethnic minorities (gypsies, blacks, drug addicts, etc.), are among the proposals most heard

While calling for a respectful demonstration, as long as it is within their rules, they do not prevent other organisations, smaller but admittedly anti-systemic, racist, supremasist-white, anti-Islamic, anti-immigration and anti-refugee reception, which they call "cultural anti-

Marxism" - which for a true Marxist is something manufactured a little by Gramsci and the Frankfurt school and which has nothing to do with Marxism, but well used by the Fascist Bourgeoisie" may also be with some members, named former members of NOS - New Social Order (identity organization, skinhead, neo-Nazi - which had appeal from its former leader), in addition to citizens who review themselves in this party, groups or ideologies, such as nostalgic Salazarists and Colonialists.

Just for this fact (for Portugal having maintained colonies until 1974, of the returnees having returned - about half a million and about another half having spread around the world losing resources that they kept in the ex-colonies - with the black indigenous people in a state of civil inferiority, already shows an impossibility for racism not to exist in this country, even more so with 16 years of colonial war with tens of thousands of dead).

Despite much ignorance (which unfortunately does not mean lack of education), many reasons for revolt against the regime and system, when no other alternatives are visible to the media, the Portuguese, besides CHEGA, whose leader began to be known as a football commentator and mayor of the PSD (Right/Centre Right), with demagogic statements, anti-Gypsyism, and the political confidence of the party to which he then belonged was withdrawn.

SYMBOL OF THE PARTY PROMOTING THE DEMONSTRATION AND ITS DEPUTY AND LEADER ANDRÉ VENTURA

All this is happening at a time when all the left-wing parties are united on State Budgets (PS, PCP and BE) and the main opposition party PSD, does not present alternative solutions, let alone the small conservative right-wing liberal and Christian Democrat party CDS, and everything is provided for the growth of the party CHEGA and its populist leader André Ventura.

They proclaim that existing racism results only from the radical left, or extreme left as they like to enunciate, horny young people and opportunistic people, for whom "the worse the better", that in Portugal there is no racist at all, and that the Portuguese people are the real victims of the racists who call themselves anti-racists!

So what is missing to be a real solution? A workers' party that does not break its word, unlike the others, with prospects for the future in Portugal and in Europe, because the people have already begun to feel that our government is nothing more than a subsidiary of the European Union and that it cannot survive in isolation for long either.

The people are also not interested in a mass influx of China allied to the CFP into a social-fascist government. The Comintern (HS) and its Portuguese Section of the Comintern (HS) in (re-) construction remain among small groups of the extreme left without program or strategic vision. Continuing the legacy of the Portuguese PCP (R), from the best times in alliance with Albania (leader of the worldwide Marxist-Leninist movement until the early 1980s, after moving away from China). It is we and nobody else, the true defenders of a socialist world, with sections spread over several countries and a coherent and updated central organization.

We will not allow Nazi-fascism in any form to rule Europe again as in 1939/1945.
